

Usurpation: A New Type Of Crime For Criminology

M. R. Pinheiro

Abstract:

In this paper, we expose a new type of crime, never mentioned before in Criminological literature. The crime seems to be as old as humanity. Carl Gustav Jung was not himself when he spoke about the matters of spirit: someone had usurped his ID and started therefore posing as if they were him before cameras and human kind. Hubbard, from Scientology, wasn't himself when the book from the last levels of Scientology was written, the one in which he says the soul is basically a pest because it was brainwashed by an ET/evil-god before being inserted in us. Neil Armstrong was not himself by the time he was giving interviews on national TV about his achievements. If you don't believe me, please read this paper and make half-face pictures comparisons by the couples of those that I have just mentioned.

I. Introduction

Crimes of ID theft are common things and the police has caught plenty of those throughout the years, yet usurpation is not so common: usurpation is an all-more encompassing concept than that of the ID theft, since, in it, the marginal steals also all the assets, connections, influence, fame, production, resume, charisma, looks (in whatever is possible) and even thinking/essence (nowadays that being facilitated by the head devices) of the victim.

We Found cases from the time of St Catherine of Siena, therefore by the 1300s. Things like nose, hair line, chin, ears, eyebrows, distance of eyebrows to the eyes, line of the smile, shape of the face or geometry of the head will be enough for you to detect usurpations, yet people, if noticing, tend to ignore it with time and do nothing about it, mostly because we are brainwashed with the idea that the others are always more correct than us in what regards our senses, specially if the other is an authority, a spouse, kids of the person and so on. The marginal is incredibly clever and manages to usurp also those lives, so that, whenever one of those notices the usurpation, they also get killed and replaced with a 'similar version' of themselves.

People who appear in the media usually get replaced at a much higher rate than those who don't, what is a surprising result: their faces would be way more exposed to public scrutiny and therefore it should be easier to identify usurpation. 'Tom Cruise' has multiples and the first one in the series usurped before he became famous. Multiples are yet another type of new crime (new here in the sense of never officially catalogued or recorded before as existing), which we deal with in another paper. More recently, his staff published half-face comparisons of couples of his multiples' images to facilitate detection, since the intended to self-report, thanks to interactions with us and a plan on how we, as a society, will have to deal with such phenomenon.

This sort of crime has been used to spread satanism, so that some of the conditions involved in a person usurping through a particular terrorist group, namely Al Qaeda, was that they accepted having a bug in their heads, therefore mobile slavery and the chance of being killed or harmed via bug, as well as directed to do things they do not want via brainwashing of some type, plus that they accepted living the rest of their lives inside of the satanic system, which, among others, implies being promiscuous, unfaithful, bisexual and doing scramble of their kids.

A few things usurpers may change in order to perpetrate the usurpation are color of hair and style, color of eye, color of skin and language of communication. They do that all via head bug, which is yet another type of crime and we will talk about it in yet another paper.

One of the most interesting things in this type of crime is that usurpers may also get the life and existence they illegally and criminally own usurped at any time, like there is absolutely no guarantee of 'stay': one is what the marginal frequently says, 'if you sin' then anything can be done against you, and two is that, once the satanic system is established in society, everyone knows how to usurp, so that any individual becomes the terror, the mini-Al Qaeda.

Some existences have been usurped more than 20 times before the death of its ID. 'Jim Caviezel', while 'playing' the life of Christ during the recording of the most recent 'Mel Gibson's' movie on that theme, entered his character so much that the marginal thought he was Christ and, being Islamic, didn't hesitate: lightening, pneumonia, 2 heart attacks in a row and others. Basically, we believe this 'actor' would have suffered usurpation four times in a row by the end of this 'movie' because Hezbollah and Al Qaeda couldn't stop their fingers. Not happy with what happened by the end of the movie, which were 2 open-heart surgeries (so that we believe 2 new usurpers appeared at that stage), the marginal still usurped again each time 'Jim Caviezel' opened his mouth to glorify Our God in an interview. One of the top members of Al Qaeda believes he is the own incarnation of the devil, and God knows I do believe him (he is 'my' 'father'), so that it all makes sense to them.

In this paper, we intend to study three cases of usurpation so that things get explained via example. We worry about ways that an individual can protect themselves against this type of thing but also with the technical details involved in all.

Development

The marginal that is best known by me and commands Al Qaeda as a second in charge, the devil, says usurpation started by the time the Afrikan slaves started acquiring their first IDs in the public libraries in Rio de Janeiro. According to him, the prison officer, who he calls carcerman, is the one who first came up with the idea of usurpation, which he would have given to those in jail in Carandiru (Brazil came up with the name Carandiru for a prison in the state of Sao Paulo later on, yet this was the historical nickname for a famous prison in Rio before they do that, one located inside of the sea) by the time the first ship containing Afrikan ex-slaves was marked to depart the port that was next to it. According to him, the convicts would then have swam to the first ship, climbed it and usurped.

It is just that the end of Afrikan slavery in Brazil would have been in the year of 1888 but the first case we got through the Internet dates from the 1300s and we believe usurpation is much older than that, just that it is hard to find pictures, since those started by the 1800s, and it is also hard finding multiple paintings or drawings of the same ID online.

Did the marginal then lied to me, who figured, at that stage, as his daughter? There is a chance that his group started usurping back then, so Al Qaeda, yet other people, perhaps without groups or attachments to their philosophy or terrorism, usurped before that date, so that his report might still be true. Yet, I find it odd that the convicts from back then would know how to swim and not fear entering the sea plus would be able to climb ships, which I am sure is something really hard to do, and, not only that, but would be able to kill on board and dump the body in the sea, like even if we forget about detection, like the risk of someone on board finding out. I also find it odd that the convicts were all of black color back then, since if they were going to usurp in a ship where only those are, they would have to be of black color and the marginal claims all convicts left jail and usurped. The marginal even has a joke: that usurpation in the world will be over whenever the carcerman gives up. I tend to think that if they were all blacks, then they were ex-slaves, and those never learned how to swim, I am sure.

Carl Gustav Jung: 1875-1961 [1]. "Carl Gustav Jung was one of psychology's pioneering figures of the 20th Century. He was a radical and inspirational psychologist and thinker who developed a characteristic and unique way of understanding the human psyche and its functioning.

Certain of Jung's concepts and terms have entered into everyday language, such as introversion and extroversion, complex and archetype. More significantly, he founded a system of thought which has directly helped very many people and indirectly influenced countless more, as well as having entered and influenced mainstream culture itself." [1]

Believe it or not, these three pictures are of the same ID and that is nothing less than our Carl Gustav Jung, the man who came up with the ideas of the Collective Unconscious and Archetypes [3].

Please observe that the pictures are completely different: skin color (one is reddish, the other is tanned and the other is brownish), nose (one is pointier and longer than the other two), chin (one is rounded and the other two are squared but one of those is much wider than the other) and so on.

You then would ask: if the images are so different, how come people don't notice, this not even when they are speaking or writing? The answer is that the marginal sometimes moves the ID to another location when they start new usurpation and, back then, TV was a rare thing. The TV, as we know today, actually started by 1940 and his ID died 21 years later. Nowadays the marginal is more careful and the usurpers look more similar to each other.

Usurpers from the past studied their subjects either as it went or beforehand and, these days, they get the essence of the victim, which I call mechanical soul, transferred via head bug. In this modality, the victim is bugged before their homicide, so that the marginal can extract their memories and general feel, observing the subject a little through the head bug, before usurping. Even so, a lot of inconsistency is found in the work appearing after each usurpation: it is just that we realistically are not looking for that yet. I say that because one of the things Al Qaeda does is satanizing the biography of the usurped, and they target Christians more than anyone else (so that 'Osama bin Laden', who still exists and is still alive, the top boss of Al Qaeda, with the Brazilian multiple (top boss of all the marginals I had direct contact with since almost birth and during my life so far, only true top boss of Al Qaeda as far as I know) being 'my' 'relative', called 'Candido Vieira' in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where he works or worked as a Biology Professor, having usurped this ID in Australia by 1972 at the Sydney University, when the original Candido and his wife, Nilza, were doing research there into twins, if I am not mistaken in my memories, actually hates Christianity), so that they make Jung, who was originally white and Christian, sound insane by the end of his life, for instance, as in the video I recently watched on YouTube, one about him 'knowing God', only token I got that I thought was of value. They did the same with Hubbard, as said in the abstract (many drop Scientology by the time they reach the OT levels, when they get to know about the ET, volcanos and their opinion about the soul), so that my guess is that Hubbard was also originally Christian and white. One of the strongest reasons a person may have to get into Christianity and follow/obey the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob is obviously wisdom, so that the marginal here seeks to destroy the image everyone else had of the Christians: best at all they do for God is with/for them.

Why compliance and government also don't notice it so far? They would have noticed, plenty, but the marginal then 'performs an adjustment', which is when they usurp lives of cops or others who denounce or notice something. I personally watched when Leinha killed 2 federal cops of Australia as they attended the Sydney masonry for having been alerted by the population about terror going on there. She moves an arm as quickly as the light and knocks them down by breaking their necks through a chin strike. Almost immediately, 2 other people replace those cops and who comes back to the federal police quarters is the two usurpers. In that episode, the usurpers of the AFP asked me for guidance (I was less than 5 yo but they knew I was a victim of the group and was kept able to think, despite bugged), the female 'officer', and I then suggested that she said the population had said it was terror, so that they needed to arrest a few. Leinha then decides that she is going to jail together with the devil (who has at least 3 other names, two of those being 'Jayme Braganca Pinheiro' and 'Vladimir Uslanov') and 'Osama' (who may have gone under 'Candido Viera's name back then, not sure). After very few days, I go hand-in-hand with 'Lea Maria Ricci Pinheiro', 'my' 'mother', to the AFP quarters in Sydney CBD, closest one to the Central Station, to visit them together with a CIA guy, who is freaking out, clearly one more victim of the group, but perhaps a native, original, like he really did not want to do that. We arrive and the usurpers are those who come to greet us at the desk. They call the devil and he is then already out with us at that stage, like it looks like they are 'at home' at the AFP, basically, like he is now out of the desk, to our side, where I and 'Lea Maria' were staying. He then tells the CIA guy, who had asked me, on the way, for advice as to what I thought he could be doing, so basically to do the right thing, to put something on the paper about their exit. The CIA guy is then doing the only thing I thought he could do, which was mocking around, trying to dismiss the request by giving some allowed and legal excuse. He however does not follow my advice to the last millimeter, like he doesn't really give them a legal excuse ever, he just mocks around, which I think is the reason as to why they killed also him later on that day, after we left the AFP premises with the devil. He received orders from the devil to write something and he said he did not know what to write. They then reach an agreement, which was that it was going to be MKULTRA and they will then be transferred to the USA. Yet, at that stage, we took Braganca and no replacement was left for him, so that the AFP was already taken somehow, meaning they were all already completely under their control. The marginal has now performed adjustments for at least 137 years in all the relevant police stations of the world and the marginal tells me that the entire Australia, so more than 20 million people, is now usurpers, like there is not even a single original from its native people left. Once they are existing in the satanic system, so once they have agreed with the thing, they are very unlikely to stop crime or let it be stopped, with me believing the instruction 'all you can do is crime' is passed via brainwashing to them in the bug by default. If, by oddity of destiny, with all this usurpations around, the marginal still gets arrested, they are taken out of jail, as 'Bradley Paul Neal' was (back then under another identity), so someone from the top of the group organizes it for them, in that case Leinha: they then get out of jail through yet another usurpation and, it seems to me, a dumb slave who is a result of the spaceship abduction perpetrated periodically by Al Qaeda in the target countries then occupies their spot until the end of the jail term. I theorize this dumb slave would usually be a white Christian, native of one of the target countries. I still theorize they would have been bugged after being abducted and then heavily brainwashed to actually believe they are the convict before swapping places with them, in that case with 'Bradley'. I think 'Bradley' (this ID came from a compliance officer from the USA, Long Island) had been arrested for raping me and my twin back then, so by 1973, in Sydney. Back then, it was 'Lea Maria' who got him in jail, so a member of their group, upon feeling pity on us two, which means effectively never police. The name in the police records of the victims should be Robert and Elsie Dunnam, since that is apparently my original name. I actually usurped in Brazil myself and watched the original 'Marcia Ricci Pinheiro' being killed by hand by the devil in front of me, at the back yard of Ladislau Neto, 554, Ipanema, Porto Alegre, RS. The girl was bugged and Al Qaeda subjected her to a routine before killing her so that she seemed to be in 'phase out' when the devil broke her neck. The original pictures of Marcia are then mixed with mines in the album, so that nobody notices the difference or we feel as if we are the same person. 'Lea Maria' even took me to where one of the pictures had been taken and she made me believe I was wearing the same clothes and she was taking my picture only then. They then glue our memories so that we don't see that time anymore after the event and I was too little to even know where the police was there. Nobody noticed in that case also because Marcia wasn't even attending school yet, so little. She was born in 1971 and I was about probably 5 yo when I usurped. I was with Al Qaeda when they killed 'Lea Maria', 'Jayme Braganca' and 'Nelson Ricci Pinheiro'. Nelson and Jayme were bugged in the head and made sick somehow so that they ended up at the hospital, where I went with Nelson to kill each one of them. He then enters the hospital and there is never any staff. That was a hospital of the army. He comes behind their bodies, as they lie on the hospital bed, and does something that kills them. Their faces were completely different from those of 'my' 'Nelson' and 'my' 'Braganca'. I think they were both using some machine to breath and 'Nelson' then turns them off or something. That hospital is then taken by Al Qaeda back then ,it was actually a small thing, looking more like a clinic. They then do a system of double cremation most of the time, if the homicide happens inside of a hospital/clinic: corpses go together with another in the cremation process, so that the price is paid by the family or next of kin of the one who officially died and they get rid of the 'waste'. The funeral house then knows all about it, like the staff dealing with those corpses, so that those would also have been taken by Al Qaeda. The original Nelson was attending a cadets school in Brazil, so army school, apparently, and the original Braganca was an officer of the Brazilian army. In this case, it seems that 'Nelson' stopped attending the school and did not graduate, even though he tells me he did. 'Braganca' asked to be transferred to Rio de Janeiro, so that he followed the path I initially pointed at, of starting usurpation in a place where the original person is unknown.

Lafayette Ronald Hubbard: "L. Ron Hubbard was an author, philosopher, humanitarian and Founder of the Scientology religion. He was born March 13, 1911, in Tilden, Nebraska, and passed away January 24, 1986." [4]

Again, we notice the three men are completely different: hair line (they all start at different places on the head), nose (they all differ in width) and chin (one is rounder, two others are squarish but hold different shape).

Jim Caviezel: "James Patrick Caviezel, Jr. (born September 26, 1968) is an American film actor, sometimes credited as Jim Caviezel. He is known for the roles of Jesus Christ in the 2004 film The Passion of the Christ, Bobby Jones in Bobby Jones: A Stroke of Genius, Edmond Dantès in The Count of Monte Cristo, Catch in Angel Eyes and Private Witt in The Thin Red Line." [6]

Notice that these are again three different men: nose (longer or wider than the other), forehead (longer than the other) and shape of the face (one more like a V, the other more like a U and the other like a fatter U).

I selected only 3 pictures of the long string of pictures available at a Google click, with me just typing their names and the word pictures on the Google search rectangle to find those, because that is enough for you to be convinced that usurpation has happened in this world and this paper is exclusively to catalogue this 'new' type of crime in the scientific literature.

At a certain stage, Australia will have to accept resourcing to satellite brainwashing of its population of now mechanical-soul bearers in order to restore systems and services if what the marginal says is true and we do believe it is. We suggest that the sentences used be 'I will always tell the truth', 'I will always comply', 'I will always have good intentions' and 'I will never panic'. We have prepared a plan to recover Australia, Brazil, United States and England from this long string of atrocities of Al Qaeda and we have presented part of this plan to the governments involved, yet we currently wait for further developments.

We suggest replacing incarceration with brainwashing and brain-editing via bug and recording all crimes in the official system (after God's Brainwashing is on) in the ways described by the marginals. We would like to coordinate the process and believe we are equipped to do that. The Australian police will need new software to make half-face comparisons between images of the ID so that the computer calculates usurpations and dates based on those.

We would be happier if working from the United States and coordinating things from there, since we seem to be originally from there, like the marginal stole us from our home when we were just-born or something and brought us initially to Australia, so by 1972, and subsequently to Brazil, so by 1974.

II. Conclusion

Usurpation is a type of crime that has been around for an extremely long time, even though we can only prove it exists since the 1300s so far. A study of the pictures of the ID throughout the years of its existence will easily reveal the amount and quality of the usurpations, but it seems that we will only be able to prove usurpations of famous IDs, so of the existences of people who have at least been part of the media somehow during their life term.

We have proven that the crime happens in society by means of studying 3 pictures, portraying 3 different stages of the existence of each ID we mentioned and those were, in total, three: Carl Gustav Jung (born in Switzerland), L. Ron Hubbard (born in the USA) and Jim Caviezel (born in the USA).

Anyone anywhere any time can have their existence usurped, which means they will become a victim of homicide but nobody will officially acknowledge their death because their ID will keep on existing, but, since then, associated with the body of another.

Becoming a usurper means accepting a deal with the devil, so that your existence can then also be usurped at any time, anywhere and for any reason, including no reason. Some IDs have been usurped more than 20 times in a life cycle, so that, effectively, a usurper may live with the usurped ID for even less than one year.

The long life of this sort of crime is mostly due to high levels of violence and strategy being employed by the enemy or literally the devil. Al Qaeda goes taking over places with no mercy by means of its legion of usurpers, people who, in principle, voluntarily chose to be part of those atrocities, however very likely to have been heavily brainwashed or manipulated all the time. One of the nicest Al Qaeda members, 'Joao Carlos Ricci Terra', once said that 'in this life, it is all puppets or puppeteers', so that, from there, we infer they make people become part if they are not those 'moving the pawns', therefore people are literally forced into it. Leinha tells me she first got bugged in the head by 'Osama', then she was told 'all you can do is crime'. A bug that nobody yet knows exist, as for official records, yet everyone fears like death even because it is possible death. Victims usually don't know how it got in and they are told they will never succeed in both proving that it is inside of their heads and taking it out. That is the 666 of the devil, the sign of the beast that your soul is in hell, not with you anymore, like now it is a mechanical one. We will talk about the bug in another paper.
